Call to Worship

Psalm 97:1-6, 12

Pastor: The LORD reigns! Let the earth be glad! Let the distant shores rejoice!

People: Clouds and thick darkness surround him; righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.

Pastor: Fire goes before him and consumes his foes on every side. His lightning lights up the world; the earth sees and trembles.

People: The mountains melt like wax before the LORD, before the Lord of all the earth. The heavens proclaim his righteousness, and all the peoples see his glory!

Pastor: Rejoice in the LORD, you who are righteous, and praise his holy name!

*Praise Hymn

#100 - Holy, Holy, Holy

*Invocation

Rev. Josh Garrett

* those who are able please stand

Pastor: Christian, what do you believe about the Day of Judgment?

People: We believe that God has appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by Jesus Christ, to whom all power and judgment has been given by the Father.
In that day not only shall the apostate angels be judged,
but also shall all people who have ever lived on earth appear before the judgment seat of Christ in order to give an account of their thoughts, words, and deeds, and to receive judgment according to what they have done
in the body, whether good or evil.

God's purpose in appointing this day is to manifest
the glory of his mercy in the eternal salvation of the elect,
and the glory of his justice in the damnation of the reprobate,
who are wicked and disobedient.

On that day the righteous shall go into everlasting life
and receive that fullness of joy and refreshing
which shall come from the presence of the Lord;
but the wicked, who do not know God
and who do not obey the gospel of Jesus Christ,
shall be cast into eternal torments
and be punished with everlasting destruction
from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his power.

As Christ would have us to be absolutely convinced that there will be a day of judgment,
both to deter all men from sin
and to give greater consolation to the godly in their adversity,
so will he have that day unknown to men,
that they may shake off all carnal security,
may always be watchful—
because they do not know at what hour the Lord will come—and may always be prepared to say, “Come, Lord Jesus. Come quickly.” Amen.

The Sacrament of Baptism

Rev. Josh Garrett

Charles Alexander & Elizabeth Brookes Wohlrabe

1. Do you acknowledge your children's need of the cleansing blood of Jesus Christ, and the renewing grace of the Holy Spirit?
2. Do you claim God's covenant promises on their behalf, and do you look in faith to the Lord Jesus Christ for their salvation, as you do for your own?
3. Do you now unreservedly dedicate your children to God, and promise, in humble reliance upon divine grace, that you will endeavor to set before them a godly example, that you will pray with and for them, that you will teach them the doctrines of our holy religion, and that you will strive, by all the means of God's appointment, to bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord?
4. Do you as a congregation undertake the responsibility of assisting these parents in the Christian nurture of these children?

Congregational Prayer

Take My Life and Let It Be

*Take their lives and let it be consecrated, Lord, to Thee
Take their moments and their days; let them flow in ceaseless praise;
Let them flow in ceaseless praise.*

Call to Prayer

Ephesians 3:6, 14-21

This mystery is that through the gospel the Gentiles are heirs together with Israel, members together of one body, and sharers together in the promise in Christ Jesus.

For this reason I kneel before the Father, from whom his whole family in heaven and on earth derives its name. I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.
